(54) Title: A FOOT-PROPELLED, WHEELED HOBBY OR SPORT DEVICE

(57) Abstract: The invention relates to a foot-propelled, wheeled hobby and/or sport device that has a foot plate. Characteristic of the device is that it has one or two wheels (1) positioned between two side plates (7, 8) the axle (3) of which wheel (1) is fixed to the side plates (7, 8). Positioned under the wheel (1) axle (3) there are foot plates (9, 10) extending outwards connected to the side plates (7, 8). During the normal use of the device the side plates (7, 8) extend above the knee (21) of the person using the device, who is standing on either one or both of the foot plates (9, 10).
